

FILE ONLY

The Washington Post
The New York Times
The Washington Times E-2
The Wall Street Journal
The Christian Science Monitor
New York Daily News
USA Today
The Chicago Tribune

Date 2 NOV. '87

BETTY ON MONDAY

Around the town

"Skip" Nalen, president of OPIC (Overseas Private Investment Corp.) and wife Kim giving a cozy, tres chic dinner at the Sulgrave Club where former CIA Director Dick Helms said what worries him about Bob Woodward's new book is the classified material it contains that Bill Casey never would have given him but somebody at the agency did. Who? ... Vietnam hero, triple amputee and a honey of a guy Max Cleland, now Georgia's secretary of state, coming here and at Candy and Frank Stroud's dinner for him said he may run for governor of Georgia. "Why? You're already the most powerful man in the state," asked Sen. Wyche Fowler, Georgia Democrat. "How come?" asked a guest. "Because he's the most beloved man in Georgia," replied the senator.

— Betty Beale